WEDDING BELLS

DEY—SCOTT

Miss Agnes Florence Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Scott, of Artland, was united in marriage to Mr. William P. Dey, of Chauvin, at the Presbyterian Church, Wainwright, at 2.30 p.m., Wednesday, July 11th, by Rev. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. David Dundas were among the witnesses.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dey were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Dundas. They have now returned to Chauvin and will reside at the Dey farm.

This happy couple have a host of well wishers in the district, upon the behalf of whom, we express the wish for a long and happy life in our midst.

Manitou Lake Ladies Aid

The ladies of the above association have renewed their activities after a vacation, through busy times, and two meetings have recently been held. It is the intention of the ladies to hold a sale of work later on and they are leaving nothing to chance, but intend making everything in their power to make this event a great success.

LOCAL CROP REPORT

For another week warm weather and frequent showers have prevailed, with the result that the crops are all growing rapidly. Hail has been with the showers, but the major part of the damage has been slight.

Last Wednesday a storm of unusual violence passed over the Battle river at exville. Some ten farmers suffering most heavy damages. Stones of two ounces in weight having been discovered. Slight damage is also reported from the Dina district. Nearest town damage was done to the Switzer, Pitman and Haas farms.

Despite this hail damage crop prospects continue to be the best.

There have been hosts of premature congratulations to a certain popular young man in our midst. The day has arrived when those congratulations (with suitable presents) has now arrived.

St. Jean Baptiste Picnic

The fourteenth annual St. John the Baptist celebration was held at Chauvin Wednesday, July 11th.

The day's proceedings opened, as is customary with celebration of Mass. Under the shade of the poplar trees in the church grounds, an altar and seats had been arranged. Rev. Father Martin, of the Franciscan Order, of North Edmonton Convent preached an excellent sermon. Taking his illustration from the life of John the Baptist as fore-runner of Christ and the patron saint of Canada, he pleaded for broadness of mind, exhorting all to be as one in working for progress of town and district and to be patriotic for Canada.

After the dinner had been served, which all greatly enjoyed, a program of sports was participated in by the church grounds, continuing until half past five. The ladies certainly excelled in the art of running 25 yards, driving nails and returning to the starting point; whilst the smokers race also provoked much mirth.

DO YOU WANT A NICE BOY OR GIRL BAG?

Do you want a beautiful baby boy or girl in your home? What would you give to hear the happy sounds of child laughter and the merry prance of child's feet across the home floor?

There are two tragedies which perhaps can never be separated from human existence—"the homeless child" and "the childless home."

We have a message for those whose unward and unexpressed sorrow is that such pleasures may never be theirs—it is that their hopes may be fully realized. They may have a boy or a girl, whichever they wish to love and cherish as their own. To educate and train, and if desired to legally adopt as their own children.

At the time of writing there are some fifteen teeny baby girls for you to choose from. It was the privilege of the writer to see these children in their little cots in Edmonton, and he is able to testify that these are most desirable youngsters. He entered the building prepared to see a number of feeble, sub-normal, and sickly children. Instead of which he found the healthiest bunch imaginable. Only one little baby boy of some three months showed the mark of a minor baby sickness from which he was making a satisfactory recovery.

Should you wish for one of these children in your home you may have one. You must make application to the Department of Neglected Children, Province of Alberta, Edmonton, of which K. C. McLeod is Superintendent. We may here state that should you desire a child of more advanced age you may have such, in fact at any age from one month to eighteen years.

A form will be sent to you to fill in; you will have to furnish particulars of your home, distance from post office, school and so on. You will be required to undertake that the child sent to school, has Christian training, and treated in every way as a member of your family; you will also have to furnish the name of four referees.

Equalities will be made of these references, and if found satisfactory, you will be required to enter into a simple form of agreement confirming the above promises as to schooling, training and home life, also to furnish the child with food, clothing, washing and other necessities, and with training for some useful occupation in life.

Upon completion of these documents you will be allowed the choice of those children awaiting foster-parents. It is the desire of the department to place these children with foster-parents with whom they will have the privilege of home life rather than be placed in an institutional home. This policy has been found the most satisfactory, and with but only a small number of exceptions, has proved entirely successful. The factor of greatest importance is the good moral home and its environments.

It will interest you to know that at the present time in Alberta there are 1729 children already enjoying the privilege of home life with foster-parents, and another 294 in foster homes outside the province, also placed with parents or relatives under the supervision of the Department. It is greatly to the credit of the Province of Alberta that from the earliest stage of her history a province she has taken steps to protect her child life. For the past fourteen years she has been actively engaged on this work, under the provisions of four acts—The Children Protection Act; The Juvenile Courts Act; The Dominion Delinquents Act; and The Mothers' Allowance Act.

If you so desire you may take part in this work of bringing together the homeless child and the childless home, by becoming foster-parents for one of these unfortunate little ones, and if you so wish, you may later legally adopt the child.

Next week we will endeavor to give our readers an outline of the work of the Department of Neglected Children.

Don't Forget This

Do not forget the G.W.V.A., 'C' Squad 19th Alberta Dragons and St. Andrew's Society Sports Day and Peace Celebration. They are all combining their efforts to make this a real day of pleasure to all. There will be unique sports, both mounted and unmounted with liberal prizes for all events. Baseball tournament with a fifty dollar prize and a big dance at night.

Uniform Game Laws

A serious effort is being made to obtain greater uniformity in the game laws of the four western provinces. To this end a conference of representatives of the four governments has been held in Winnipeg.

The Chautauqua will be held on 20, 21, 23, and 24 of July. Watch for Posters. From various reports the Chautauqua this year is very good.

Chauvin Boy Scouts

The Chauvin Boy Scouts held a meeting last Thursday and decided to take their tenderfoot tests at the next meeting, next Thursday. All boys wishing to join the Boy Scouts should do so at once so that all will be of equal rank. We will be pleased to see good attendance at the next meeting.

Alberta Livestock

Alberta Livestock was prominent in the winning classes at the Manitoba provincial exhibition at Brandon last week, when Bog's herd of Dayland, and the Collett herd of Crossfield divided honours in the Hereford classes.

Alberta Fisheries

It is estimated that the fish catch in an Albert during 1922 totalled in value $390,000; being 25,000 hundred weights in the winter and 19,000 hundredweight during the summer.

Saskatchewan Egg Marketing Act

The following circular letter has been mailed from the Markets Branch of the Department of Agriculture, Saskatchewan, to all holders of licenses under the Egg Marketing act of that province:

"During the past winter a number of conferences have been held to consider a nation-wide plan for buying and selling eggs on a graded basis. It is expected that regulations to this end will shortly be made effective. Until then the Saskatchewan Egg Marketing act, with which you are familiar, applies to eggs marketed by you. As soon as the new regulations come into effect they will automatically supersede our authority, and your relationship will be with the Federal Department of Agriculture instead of with this department.

"Egg marketing legislation in this province has raised the standard of our marketable eggs. Federal regulations will set a step further and sort these eggs according to size and quality. If we produce the right standard and quality, the export demand for our eggs will increase and our domestic market will also be benefited. DO NOT SACRIFICE QUALITY OF THIS STAPLE FOOD PRODUCT."

Clear Lake Boys Camp

The 1st Camp at Clear Lake, to which some twenty Chauvin boys went last year, will be held this year from July 23rd to July 30th, at the same place.

The program includes C. S. E. T., work in swimming; life saving; athletics; group games; baseball; volleyball; football; stunt nights; nature study; bible study; camp fires with songs and stories; hikes; health talks; campcraft and woodcraft. Boys of 12 years and over are heartily invited. The cost of camp period is $4.50, of which 50c is to be paid with application, and the balance of $4.00 on arrival at camp.

Equipment and camp outfit provided by the camp committee, and the supervision under competent leaders and camp council. The honor system is applied in all camp rules. Swimming at stated times only and under supervision. No firearms and no smoking. The camp duties will be performed by the boys, who will share these in regular turn. The lads are requested to wear old clothes only and stout shoes whilst in attendance at camp. A detailed list of personal belongings each boy should take can be seen at the Chronicle office, or obtained on application to J. R. Love, camp director, Irma, Alberta.

Seed Grain Inspection

The seed branch of the Dominion government will in future take the field inspection work for the registered seed grain production, which work has hitherto been done by the provincial department of agriculture and the university.

Farmers will be charged for this inspection at one half the actual cost.

There are now, it is estimated, 700 acres of registered seed in Alberta, which is a great increase from the which is a great increase in the past two years.

1. A Typical Bungalow Camp at Emerald Lake. 2. This from the Nipigon. 3. A Vista of the French River.

MOST of the newer parts of Canada have received their first impetus toward development through the tourists. In many cases it has been the tourists that have first gone in to spy out the land. They have found it good, and, by the trade which they brought in, have encouraged settlers to set up their homes with the result that the district has been well started on its way to becoming an organized and productive community.

With the idea of inducing traffic, and by so doing, helping to popularize and settle those vast, beautiful and productive lands along the right-of-way in Central and Western Ontario, the Canadian Pacific Railway has decided to establish a number of Bungalow Camps, modelled on those which have proved so successful in the Canadian Pacific Rockies during the past three years, and it is expected that in a very short time this part of the country will be as famed for its scenic and sporting possibilities as any other part of the Dominion. The French River, Nipigon Bay and Lake of the Woods districts are, and have been for many years, well and most favourably known to anglers and hunters, particularly those from the United States and the Western provinces; but owing to lack of adequate housing facilities the traffic has been confined chiefly to the more adventurous spirits who are satisfied to live in tents. It is in these districts that the first three of the Bungalow Camps will be located, and it is expected that they will be ready for occupation by July first.

The Camps will consist of a central community house where meals will be served, and which will also serve as a recreation hall, surrounded by small rustic bungalows suitable for two or four persons. The privacy, simplicity and rusticity of these bungalows appeals to those who like outdoor life, and the moderate cost of construction and maintenance makes it possible to charge much lower rates than an elaborate hotel where operating expenses are necessarily high.

The Hon. Mr. Bowman, Minister of Lands and Forests in the Ontario Government, has expressed himself as entirely sympathetic to the extension of the Bungalow Camp idea in Ontario, and any sites that may be available at agreed rates with the cordial co-operation of this department, so that the Company will be able to establish camps in some of the choicest spots of this beautiful and inspiring country.

In the Crow's Nest

CROW'S NEST.
ON THE WAY TO CROW'S NEST—THE HIGHEST WOOLLY BRIDGE IN THE WORLD.

Rolling up to the Crow's Nest Pass are olive green foothills without a tree upon them—natural cattle runs clothed with succulent short grass. Here are seen occasional outcrops of rock, which in their four or five feet of height show all the characteristics of a mountain range; miniatures of the Rockies, with crag and precipice and col reproduced on the smallest scale. With a bag of salt one could lay on glaciers, touch the peaks with white and have a toy range which any Eastern schoolteacher could set up in her classroom with advantage to herself and her pupils. Canadians east of Medicine Hat know too little about the construction of this Continent and about the glorious engineering of Nature.

Consider the Crow's Nest itself. The name brings before some of us a schedule of railway-rates; to others, a series of coal mines. These are derivative impressions. The original Crow's Nest is a mountain rising to 9,000 feet and more above sea-level and visible for many miles. The rock-peak, as one looks from the foothills is set like a fuzzy, round crow's-nest on the sky-line. Leading up to it are the olive-green billows fading into a soft blue haze.

In the distance near the peak is a snow-white precipice, which they tell us is two miles wide and a mile high. It is all excellence and loveliness until one travels twenty miles farther. Then it gleams like the fangs of a wolf. It is the rock-face of Turtle Mountain, cleft from top to bottom in 1905 to the destruction of the mining town of Frank.

To-day the whole Valley, two miles wide, is a tempestuous chaos of white stone blocks, some of them as big as a house, all with jagged edges and sharp corners. They are piled from fifty to one hundred feet high above the original valley level. The railway line climbs over the debris. Beneath it lies the broken city. On either side of the avalanche stand a few deserted houses, windows out, glaring like skulls upon the new town. The whole valley spells terror and tragedy. Even yet people talk of Pompeii and Herculaneum, but they are like to forget the more terrible fate of Frank when rock by millions of tons fell a mile out of the sky.

Boy: "Ten cents worth of steel, and mother says will you please give it me tough."

Dad: "Tough? Whatever do you want it tough for?"

Boy: "Because if it's tender father will cut it all off we'll get none."

Customer: "Why do you always relate those horrid tales and uncanny adventures when you are cutting one's hair?"

Barber: "Because they make folk's hair stand on end, and it's easier to cut."

LITTLE OPTIMISM APPARENT

With the best crop prospects we have had for many years we find none of that old time optimism that encouraged free spending and heavy investments that in the earlier years was so abundantly apparent.

This, while giving no immediate impetus to local business, is a distinct advantage, and will ultimately prove to be the saner and more profitable course. The too-free spending and heavy investments of the past have resulted in an altogether too heavy load of debt and interest thereon. This load of debt and interest reaches an appalling figure, the interest paid by the local farmer and business man in this district exceeds $185 per year—over $3.00 per week—approximately 50c per day.

It is impossible to obtain the exact figures of local debts of all kinds, but a conservative estimate of individual and public debts shows that within the area the Chauvin Chronicle circulates not less than $1,044,000 is owing on the various accounts. Over $120,000 is needed each year to pay the interest upon these debts, which is obviously a big drain on our purses.

Whilst a proportion of these debts represent the very best of investments and are economically sound, it is to be noted that fifty per cent of this amount is of less justifiable nature. There is every indication that a serious effort will be made this coming season to liquidate as large a portion of these superfluous debts by all concerned. The best indication of this determination is found in the abstention from free spending at this time. With the elimination of such debts we may expect to see the return of good times.

THINK PATRIOTICALLY

When the clouds are heavy we are apt to forget that the sun is still shining. It is a weakness common to humanity to forget the broad view-point under the stress of clouds of difficulty, and we are not inclined to be harsh with those who have momentarily forgotten to think patriotically. We believe that they have, for a time at least, lost their larger view-point.

It is gratifying to think that we have recently had in this district, two speakers with widely different view-points both urging their hearers to think patriotically. They upheld the historical traditions of our forefathers, the principles which have made our Empire great, and portrayed the necessity of inculcating these ideals in our homes and in the hearts of our children.

Canada is a vast Dominion. It will be the home of a virile northern people. It is our privilege to take a share in the moulding of its character. Our own district is our part of the whole and should be

MANITOBA PASSES FINAL VERDICT

With a majority of 40,000 votes Manitoba has gone on record as being opposed to the return of the bar. This verdict gains greater emphasis from the fact that three weeks ago the same people placed the control of the liquor business in the hands of their government.

The Manchester Guardian, one of the foremost British papers, sees a condemnation of the bar because of its sinister influence on politics—the 'boss' and 'graft' systems. In some measure they are right, but we would interpret the result as condemning the habit of public drinking.

The difference of 70,000 in the two majorities would indicate that there are that number of persons who, while willing to grant the privilege of drinking hard stuffs to individuals, are not willing to allow the habit to become a public one.

INEQUALITIES OF THE LAW

Judging from the penalties imposed it appears to be a lesser crime to carry a weapon than a bottle of whiskey. The average penalty for carrying a bottle of whiskey is $150 more than for carrying a revolver, and the average imprisonment is correspondingly longer. To carry a bottle of liquor is an offence against provincial law, but to carry a weapon is an offence against dominion law; hence a slight difference of penalty might be expected. The framers of the Liquor Act were anxious to see the same enforced vigorously and so provide heavy penalties—but it is difficult for the average citizen to rid himself of the idea that the weapon carrier is the most dangerous offender.

CHAUVIN FAIR

The annual fair provides an opportunity to demonstrate from year to year the progress of farming in our district. Whilst it is the individual farmer that makes headway by his own scientific work, it is the fair that makes this progress known to his neighbour farmer and to the world at large. The amount of money won in prizes is small the honor of winning gives greater satisfaction, but the greatest benefit is to be derived from the exchange of experiences and knowledge which the fair, more than anything else, makes possible.

Everybody who has any interest in the agricultural progress of the district should consider it their pleasure and their duty to support the local fair to the limit of their ability.

PELICAN BRIEFS

Councillor Fred Heard attended the council meeting at Winona Saturday.

Mr. Gordon Dorland made his usual rounds recently, and gave us a lifeline imitation of Whittier's bare foot boy.

Dick Thomas and Harry Johnson vanished westward last Sunday in search of forbidden fruit. Absence makes the heart grow fonder. Poor Harry returned minus, but hopes future adventure will prove successful. Well here's wishing him luck.

Our genial pedagogue has become quite a convert to the Roosevelt sport lately and bids fair to beat John Giffin—at least on points. "My kingdom for a horse, Dolly."

Vic Wheeler of here, there and every where paid a belated call recently. He was chaperoned by Mr. Sawyer, Edgerton Radio King. You guessed it—that noisy bug. Beats all what some people can get away with.

Hail Insurance is the order of the day.

H. B. and R. B. Thomas of 'C' Squad extend heartiest congratulations to their comrades on splendid showing at camp. Especially we cheer sergeant Johnson—we'll say he did. By the way Pitman, "was Don Saul quiet?"

We regret to report, considerable damage to Harvey Albans crop by hail Tuesday. Luck's a fickle friend.

A large number of wagons and house-hold effects from Southern Alberta mostly, destined for points north of Kootenay have been going through here for some time—resembles Emerson Hough's "Covered Wagon" serial come back to life.

Mr. Edward Swindhurst attended the strawberry social and dance at Eddie's see red for a week. Suffice unto the day (and night) is the evil thereof.

SUCCESS

Climbing, Climbing, Climbing.

Up like he ladder I go

The process is very painful.

Not rapid, but certainly slow.

No one to cheer, or praise me,

As I wend my lonely way—

No one to share my burdens—

The mob below must stay.

The pitfalls of fate are many.

Quite oft, when nearing the top,

The rung gives way without warning.

So down I go for a flop.

What matters a minor mishap?

I rise with a cheerful smile.

To climb, upward, onward forever

And whistle merrily the while—

EDGERTON ECHOES

Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Tennant, a daughter on Wednesday 11th. Inst. Both are well.

R. E. Stratton returned on Sunday from Calgary where he was a spectator at the Fair and Stampede during the week.

E. M. Teigen returned from Radville on Saturday where he was unable to make the journey by car as no ferry was running on the Saskatchewan and as his car was no hydro-plane he had to leave it behind and use the railroad from Outlook. He saw some of the havoc wrought by the Rosestown cyclone and also reports seeing whole wheat fields under water.

Miss M. Mabey, who has been on the staff of the local bank for the past six years, severed her connections with that institution and left for her home at Wainwright on Saturday. Merle was well liked by the public and to show their appreciation on Friday evening, all the ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Buijmore who gave a shower for Miss Mabey. Presents were many and fun making was furious.

A. Umbach and Miss Mabey boarded No. 2 on Saturday to the accompaniment of a horrid lot of conductors. Just a shade too soon boys; and who knows but maybe we can get back at you.

Some of our young uns was just a chide peevd at some of our quips recently; but then we ourselves saw some of those same individuals, right under our nose making plans for some more fun or else criticizing us. See if we care.

A hall adjuster, whose duties take him all over the province, ventured the remark that this districts had the best crops he has seen anywhere. That's saying a lot.

Chautauqua will soon be with us, together with its money-grabbing propensities. Why not have home chautauqua and save the money for the district? It can be done, sure.

Lamp the bronzed and stalwart like dwellers as they hike to and from their duties. They all say it's great—you know friend has no work for them when living in a tent, that's why its great.

We wish we could slip you some of that O.D.M. stuff. He doesn't give us enough of that foreign stuff. We don't know what he means, but he's right. Send in some more Georgia.

"You are the sunshine of my life! You alone reign in my heart. Without you life would be a dreary cloud."

"Is this a proposal, or a weather report?"

Connors: "I wish my client were here instead of, as I expect, lying in bed."

His Honor: "Perhaps he is better lying in bed than lying here."

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I feel it is my duty to write a few words of appreciation of my mother, and as a lesson to all children to obey and respect their parents while they are alive and well, for they never know what may soon happen as I know from experience. It may happen with any one as it did with me. It is a source of great comfort to the now to remember that I was with us; for my mother while she was with us; for I always knew mother had a kind heart for all her family, and many a mother is the same. Children who have always been thoughtful for their parents' welfare, and shown their kindness on every occasion will have no bitter regrets when their parents have passed away. When children have been unkind the loss of their parents will be much harder to bear. From my own experience this is the lesson I would impress upon every young person, honor and obey your parents while they are alive and well. It is also the duty of parents to so live that their children will respect them in their old age.

I had a nice chat with mother on Saturday May 12th, at noon, the day she died, and also in the morning as well. The last words I said to her were, "Well, I must go to work. Good-bye for the present." This was about 2:30 p.m. Father had gone to Chauvin (14 miles distant) for the mail. In the evening, mother prepared supper as usual, and had it all ready on the table when the two hired men came in. They were wishing themselves when they heard mother fall. One attended her and the other came to tell me. I was on the way home when he met me, and told me mother had fallen in a faint. In three or four minutes I reached the house where she was, and found her dead. Father did not return until an hour after this George met him on the road, and told him the sad news. Mrs. Anderson, a mile away, and Mrs. Wm. Spence, half a mile away heard the news in a few minutes. All the neighbours soon heard over the phone what had happened.

I feel now that I shall never be sorry for these words of appreciation in respect to my mother. She was always what a true mother should be. She was invariably kind and considerate to her children, and kind to all her relatives, friends and neighbours.

JOHN SNEELL

Needless Worries

Metethinks within this world of care,
Where sorrow doth abound;
The burdens that we need not bear,
Oft weigh us to the ground.

Tomorrow's cares, tomorrow's needs,
How shall they all be met?
With foolish, faithless thoughts like these,
How oft we chafe and fret.

The Father's love is still the same,
And still the promise reads,
"Thy strength sufficient for thy day."
Not for tomorrow's needs.
The future lieth dark and dim,
I cannot see the way;
I cannot trace its windings on,
Until the perfect day.
And hath the Father promised thee,
It shall be taught but dim;
Thou can'st not take two steps at once
One step along with Him.

The mysteries of His Providence,
The workings of His Hand;
His dealings with the sons of men,
I cannot understand.

Why seek to read what He has veiled?
Why dwell on the aching sight?
If He had willed it to be read,
He would have given thee light.

The troubles which perchance may come,
Which in the darkness loom;
How oft they fill the heart with fear,
And cloud the brow with gloom?

Have ye forgotten Him who said,
Or are the words untrue?
"I will be with thee in the floods,
When thou art passing through."

For when the Father sendeth grief,
He ever sendeth strength;
And He is near, to give relief,
And bring us peace at length.

But when we take unbidden cares,
We'll may we be dismayed;
For we must bear them all alone,
Without His present aid.

Then take each moment as it comes,
And trust His will for the rest;
Sire whatsoever thy life may be,
The Father knoweth best.

So shall thy days be free from care,
In all things great and small;
For the burdens that we need not bear
Are the heaviest of them all.

Why Do Things Go Round When We Become Dizzy?

Dizziness, whether caused by some derangement of the stomach, by a rush of blood to the brain (as when we stop suddenly), by looking down from a height, or by some injury in the organ behind the ear that gives us our sense of balance, in every case has the effect of throwing the brain temporarily out of gear, as it were. The result is that the connection between our eyes and brain is disturbed, and the impressions picked up are not properly received. The most simple instance of this is when we spin rapidly round and round. In so doing, we disturb our organ of balance, with the result that even after we have stopped the motion, our eyes continue for some seconds to give us an impression of a spinning world. "One woman," remarked the mere man, "is just as good as another—it not better."

"And one man," remarked the fair widow, "is just as bad as another—if not worse."

Hailstones And Snowflakes

Why should it hail instead of snow is a question that has no doubt puzzled many people, but if we could examine a hailstone and a snowflake side by side, a clue to the answer could be found.

In the case of the snowflake the water is turned into a number of tiny crystals, while the hailstone is nothing more than a ball of ice. The snow has been formed from water vapor, the hailstone is just frozen rain.

In the upper air there is a large quantity of water vapor floating about. It is in the form of a colorless gas, and so long as the air does not become cooler the water will stay as a vapor.

Air at a certain temperature can hold a certain amount of water in it in the form of water vapor. If the air becomes warmer it can hold more vapor, and if it becomes cooler it can't hold so much.

So, if the air, holding all the vapor it can, suddenly becomes colder, some of the water vapor in it has to be squeezed out in the form of drops of water. These fall to the earth as rain.

If, when these drops of water have been squeezed out, there is a sudden rush of wind upwards, the raindrops will be blown up with it into the higher regions where it is colder and the raindrops are frozen and form hailstones, which, directly the upward wind stops, fall to the ground.

Snowflakes form in a different way.

friends, was lamenting leaving at home two beautiful daughters who were just budding into womanhood.
Turning to him to whom he had just been introduced, he asked if he had any family."Yes, I have a wife and six children in Australia. And I never saw one of them," he added, quietly.The two sat in silence. Then the introduction began."Were you blind, may I ask?" said
the American.

"No," was the reply.

"Did you marry a widow?"

"No." Another silence.

"Did I understand you to say you had a wife and six children living in Australia and had never seen one of them?"

"Yes, that is how I stated it."

The American inquired, "How can that be? Is you say you never saw one of them, I do not understand that at all.""Because," was the reply, "one of them was born after I left."THE WINNING WAYAn Irish political candidate who lost sure a certain elector was against him was surprised to have that individual call and announce that he now intended to support him to the limit."When the other day ye called at my place and stood by the pigsty and talked for half an hour, I didn't budge on my feet," said his visitor."But after ye'd gone, I got to thinking how ye'd reached yer hand down over the rail and scratched the pig until he lay down with the pleasure of it.""I made up my mind that when a man was so amicable as that wid a pior fellow creature I wasn't the bhoys to vote against him."FIRST COME, FIRST SERVEDGertie, the elderly flapper of the family, had lingered in her room to put the flourishing touches to what was, in her opinion, a ravishing toilet.
She had used most of the various brands of face powder advertised, and at last she had come upon one which suited her skin to a "T." With one last look at the mirror she adjusted a curl and then went down to the room where a gentleman visitor was waiting.When she got there, however, she found Betty, aged six, seated on his knee."Why, Betty," she exclaimed, aren't you ashamed of yourself? Get off Mr Jenkins' knee at once!""Shant!" replied the sagacious child, "I was here first."PRETTY BOASTFULThe case was not going well for the prosecution and the barrister who was cross-examining the witness for the defence could not get him to make the damaging statements which he had been hoping for all along.At last he thought he would try to discredit him, and finally he asked whether the witness was acquainted with any of the men on the jury.""Yes," replied the witness, "More than half of them.""Are you willing to swear that you know more than half of them?" asked the lawyer in his most awe-inspiring tones."Well," retorted the witness, without so much as the flicker of an eyelid, "if it comes to that, I am willing to swear that I know more than the blooms' lot of them put together."Molly sat down to write a letter to her father, who had been absent for three months. This is what she finally sent:—"Dear Father:—We are all well and happy. The baby has grown ever so much and has a great deal more sense than he used to have. Hoping the coming of you, I remain your daughter, Molly."Mother: "Charlie, you naughty boy, you've been smoking. Do you feel very bad dear."

"Thank you—I'm only dying."

GOOD MONEY IN GOOD FARMING"Let's Get to Work and Pay Off the Mortgage"*NINE years ago Canada's national debt was about one-third of a billion. It is more than two and one-third billions today.Our debts have greatly increased—our revenues must also go up. The farmer has to bear his share of the increased burden. That means he must increase his revenue.Complaint has been heard that farmers under present conditions in Canada cannot make farming pay. And yet many thousands of Canadian farmers do make it pay.How Is It Done?Patient and industrious "carry on" will do wonders, but something more is needed. Too often "patient industry" is coupled with
"dull persistence" in poorly thought out methods.Farmers today are not even must plan ahead, as well as "ing along"; indeed they have no option, if they wish to succeed.
Co-ordination of head and hand will mean real success. Farming in Canada has paid and pays now many farmers. It can be made to pay on almost every farm. Canadian agriculture has passed through low profit-making eras successfully in the past and can do so again.Crop Returns Should be IncreasedOn the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa some crop costs and crop profits in 1922 as contrasted with all-Ontario average crop costs and crop profits are given below. The all-Ontario figures are in brackets:

	Cost per acre	Profit per acre
Hay	$21.13 ($13.50)	$11.21 ($3.00)
Corn for
Forage	$47.50 ($32.75)	$10.38 ($2.85)
Grass	$26.47 ($13.32)	$ 7.33 ($1.04)

Similar results can be shown from the Dominion Experimental Farms in every province.Experimental Farm crops are sometimes claimed to be produced at too great cost. Thousands of experiments, however, show that increased cropping costs wisely applied up to a reasonable point always increase crop profits. This is true on the Experimental Farm
—and on any and every farm.With the increased cost of production, the higher standards of living now prevailing cannot be maintained by poor farm management, "boarder" milkers, scrub bees, poor quality hogs or nonprofitable hens.That even under present conditions profits may be made is testified by many skillful, observant and non-planting farmers, who believe more in the policy of "slow but sure" and "pay as you go" rather than "spend, with excessive borrowing and the often consequent disaster."The results on our Experimental Farms also bear testimony to the value of thorough, skillful work.The Farmer Must ManufactureBut crops alone are not enough.
The farmer must change his crops into less bulky and more high-priced products—milk, pork, beef, mutton, poultry, etc.With fair yielding cows dairying shows good profits in Canada. The average cow has increased her yield 25% in the last ten years.
She can yield readily go up another 25% and more, and there's where the profit lies. Better feeding, better selection and better hygienic and systematic management will do the job—feed, weed, breed.To do better feeding means better pastures and more generous supplies of palatable roughage.
Short rotations including clover and ensilage crops (corn, sunflower, peas and oats, etc.) will provide feed in abundance for both summer and winter. The experiments and investigations which the Dominion Department of Agriculture have carried on prove that farming scientifically and systematically undertaken will pay profits. The records and particulars of such work in every crop are available to the Canadian farmer.Are you growing corn, or producing milk, or raising poultry? Do you give you information that will help you.
Send us your name. Are you interested in dairying? Are you interested in poultry? Are you interested in hog raising? We have some that will help you.We have published and have for free distribution 30 different reports, leaflets and circulars dealing with matters of interest to you. Ask for what you want, or for a list of our publications.
We shall have something more to say later. Meantime write the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, about your problems.Have faith in a plan
